OUR MISSION

From left, Co-Founders Carrie Doyle, Mayor Jerry Larsen, Lisa Larsen and Jackie Dunphy.

We are delighted to welcome you to East Hampton Village for the second annual Hamptons Whodunit!

Once again we are bringing you an incredible line-up featuring the most renowned mystery and thriller authors as well as notable forensic and true crime experts. We are excited to welcome our illustrious participants who will undoubtedly inspire and engage you with their skilled storytelling, depth of knowledge and expertise.

Hamptons Whodunit was founded during brainstorming sessions around Mayor Jerry Larsen's kitchen table. Our mission was simple: we wanted to create exciting and affordable off-season programming for the East Hampton community. It is our priority to work with our local schools, restaurants, inns, and businesses, and remain true to our initial concept: Hamptons Whodunit is a festival for the residents of East Hampton, and not merely a festival that takes place in East Hampton.

Year One went off without a hitch. The inaugural mystery & crime festival last April was deemed "a drop-dead success" by The East Hampton Star. Hundreds of partakers from near and far flocked to the village to attend our event.

This year we continue to present unique programming. With our partner, the East Hampton Library, we are once again offering panels and Escape Rooms. Back by popular demand, Hugh King, our Village Historian and Town Crier, will do guided Graveyard Tours about local witch Goody Garlick, who rose to notoriety thirty years before Salem's witches. In addition to our Kick-Off Cocktail Party at the Maidstone Club, we have a Whodunit Trivia Night with fiction authors and a Wine & Crime event for those eager to solve a cold case with the aid of our forensic experts. Atria Books and Sourcebooks are hosting Teas & Book Signings for their authors.

After the success of last year's Crime Scene Challenge Who Killed the Mayor?, Forensics World is returning as well. For added thrills and chills, this event will take place at the Sea Spray Cottages, a mysterious, exclusive location that will be open to the general public for the first time in 40 years. These 14 cottages, once part of the Sea Spray Inn infamously destroyed by fire in 1978, were also the site of a hushed-up murder attempt in the 1800's. This spooky backdrop is the perfect spot for amateur sleuths to put their skills to the test and immerse themselves in a realistic crime scene whodunit. It will be open to ticketed guests after over 100 East Hampton High School students first take a stab at solving the crime.

The phrase "it takes a village" has never meant more than in our case. Please flip through these pages and take note of our generous partners, sponsors and donors. Their support is crucial to our success and we hope you will support them in turn. Additionally, we have a fantastic board, dedicated committee, and steadfast consultants who work tirelessly to ensure that we bring you the most entertaining and educational experience possible.

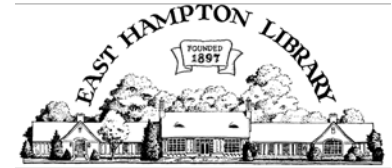

Thank you for coming. Have a wonderful weekend!

TO MAKE THE FESTIVAL ENJOYABLE FOR EVERYONE, PLEASE NOTE

Admittance to all events is on a first come, first served basis, even if you are a ticket holder.

Saving space in the line or saving seats inside a venue for other guests is not permitted.

Standing in the back may be permitted at the discretion of festival staff and volunteers.

Please silence or turn off your cell phone inside the panel venues.

No eating and drinking inside the panel venues.

The festival reserves the right to refuse admission and maintains a zero tolerance policy regarding bigotry, hate, discrimination, bullying or harassment of any kind.

The festival is committed to providing an environment where staff, panelists, guests, VIPs and volunteers are treated with dignity, courtesy and respect. Anyone found in violation of this policy will be asked to leave and not return, and will not be issued a refund.

Cell phone photography is permitted but only without the use of flash.

Since this went to press, any updates or changes to panels, locations, times, events and parking will be posted on hamptonswhodunit.org

Enjoy your weekend at Hamptons Whodunit...
