Mystery and Crime Fest a Drop-Dead Success

Participants in the Who Killed the Mayor? forensics program during the Hamptons Mystery and Crime Festival peered through microscopes and magnifying glasses and studied fingerprints as they sifted through evidence to find the "murderer."

The Inaugural Hamptons Mystery & Crime Festival Commences

All fans of whodunits considered mystery weekend in East Hampton Village to be a huge hit thanks to festival founders Mayor Jerry Larsen, Jackie Dunphy, Carrie Doyle and Lisa Larsen. With cocktail parties, book signings, graveyard tours, crime panels and escape rooms, there was no shortage of fun. This three-day event allowed attendees to meet bestselling authors, true crime experts and filmmakers at panels, Q&As and book signings. East Hampton Village brilliantly set up all venues conveniently within walking distance, making it easy for guests to ensure their weekend was full of mystery and crime excursions of all sorts, one of which being a "Who Killed the Mayor" whodunit event held at Village Hall. While competition to process crime scenes and analyze physical evidence to solve this mystery was fierce, only the top three detective teams could win. First place was awarded to Team Dog Night, whilst second was held by Team Freshies, followed by Team Amityville Horror who took home third. This event was a massive success as attendees from all over joined in the festivities, undoubtedly taking home both a sense of accomplishment and unforgettable memories. This event was the first of many, so for all of those fans of crime and mystery, be sure not to miss next year's.

The Hamptons are alive and well

Fog rolling in over the weekend made it a perfect setting for the first annual "Hamptons Whodunit" event. Dan's Papers was one of the sponsors of the inaugural Mystery & Crime Festival. What fun it was!

Opening night was at the historic Maidstone Club, a private country club and golf course founded in 1891 that is perched on acres of oceanfront property in East Hampton.

The gracious hosts welcomed the event's founders and friends to the weekend festival that had been months in the planning. I remember meeting on a cold September evening for dinner with Jerry Larsen, the innovative, respected mayor of East Hampton, and Carrie Doyle, Jackie Dunphy and Lisa Larson — the creative co-founders of this event — to brainstorm ideas.

I knew the event would be a success and immediately offered Dan's Papers to be a media sponsor.

These innovative people brought together an incredible lineup of respected authors, filmmakers, legal experts and media personalities. I got to see some old friends and make new ones!

As Mayor Jerry said, "It exceeded all our hopes and expectations!" They created a uniquely themed weekend and I was blessed to be there for the launch of what I think will be a continuing success.

SOUTHAMPTON VISIT

On Saturday afternoon, I ventured into Southampton for lunch to see my brilliant friend Dr. Peter Michalos and Zach Erdem, owner of Main 75.

Sitting at "his" table, Zach shared with us his exciting new ventures in Greenport on the North Fork. I worried he'd have a long trip, but he assured me it's only 45 minutes from Southampton if one travels through Riverhead. The scenic way on the expensive ferry takes an hour and half!

Zach has started running The Gallery Hotel and 314 Main Street restaurant in Greenport. Good luck to a man who is living the dream that is reminiscent of Horatio Alger's success story, having come to America with nothing and building hugely successful hospitality businesses. I'm so proud of Zach and am happy to have him as a friend. Stay tuned for more details!
